

Tri Kappa

Christmas Mouse slates visit

T's OCT 20 1985

Community Affairs File

The House of the Christmas Mouse, sponsored by Tri Kappa sorority, is scheduled for Dec. 5-7 in Tirey Memorial Union Building on the Indiana State University campus.

Nancy Cummins and Jeanne Conley will be co-chairmen of the annual event.

Committee members include: Susie Jones and Jane Mascari, decorations; Ann Caldwell, craft fair; Julie Baesler and Pam Anshutz, creative room; Mary Ann

Clark and Jayne Owens, publicity; Debbie Britton, refreshments; Meg Merrill, Lynn Price and Susan Maroska, secret buying room; and Mary Beth Stanley, Kay Rourke and Linda Gibbs, picture room.

Other committee chairmen are Cindy Holler and Judy Hogan, supporting patrons; Kris Felling and Nancy Brentlinger, tickets; and Janice Kluesner, Patty Dason and Nita Piazza, talking tree room.

Chairmen of the guide committee are Jan Wrin and Kathy Perry. Carol Harrah and Kathy Politz are the bakery co-chairmen.

Plans and preparations have been underway since summer. A few surprises are planned for this year's major fund raising event for the sorority. Funds raised provide scholarships for local students.

Persons interested in additional information or in purchasing tickets should contact members of Tri Kappa.

Tribune-Star/Jim Avelis

Tri Kappa plans Mouse House

Tri Kappa sorority's House of the Christmas Mouse is planned for Dec. 5-7 in the Tirey Memorial Union Building on the Indiana State University campus. Discussing the annual event are Jeanne Conley, co-chairman; Lynn Price, secret buying room; Susie Jones, decorations; (standing) Nancy Cummins, co-chairman; and Cindy Holler, supporting patrons.

Clubs (Vigo) Libraries (T.H.)

Tri Kappa fund benefits local organizations

Association (Vigo Co.)

Recipients of money contributed from the Philanthropy Fund of Gamma Gamma chapter of Tri Kappa sorority include Clothes Closet, Girls Club of Terre Haute, Vigo County Historical Society, Planned Parenthood, the Vigo County Public Library George Foulkes Oral History Memorial Fund and 4C (Community Coordinated Child Care), according to Mrs. Robert Scott, president of the sorority's chapter.

Money from the fund will be used by the Clothes Closet for purchase of items not received in donations. Girls Club of Terre Haute will use their money for office equipment, and a paper cutter, nylon floor mats and storage boxes have been purchased by the Vigo County Historical Society.

Accent

THE TRIBUNE, TERRE HAUTE, IND. WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1979 5

Planned Parenthood will use their money toward their building fund, and tapes and equipment were purchased by the Vigo County Public Library George Foulkes Oral History Memorial Fund. Plans are made to purchase items for the 4C Drop Off Center with the money received from the Tri Kappa fund.

Money for the Fund is earned through the House of the Christmas Mouse. Scholarships are awarded each year, with the remainder contributed to local agencies.

TESTING NEW EQUIPMENT — Betty C. Martin, assistant director of the new Vigo County Public Library, Kathy Foulkes and Cecelia Scott, president of Tri Kappa sorority, try out tape purchased from a contribution from the Gamma Gamma chapter of Tri Kappa sorority House of Photography

Clubs (WV)
Tri Kappa Sorority

Community Affairs File

REFERENCE
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Vigo County Public Library